FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (April 30)

CHARLESTON, IL.--Two Eastern Illinois University employees, Janet Fraembs and Ann Ingram, have been honored as Supervisor of the Quarter and Employee of the Month, respectively.

Mrs. Fraembs is a staff secretary to the Dean, College of Applied Sciences. Her responsibilities include coordinating and supervising day-to-day operations in the Dean's office, overseeing budgets in the College, handling certification materials for all Home Economics majors, supervising a word processing specialist and two student workers.

She was born and raised in Charleston and educated at the former EIU Training School and High School. She has a B.S. in Education from Eastern, and is a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church, the Charleston Sacred Harp Singers and the Eastern Illinois Delta Zeta Alumnae Chapter.

Mrs. Ingram is the assistant facilities manager in the University Union campus scheduling office. She is general supervisor of conferences and events held in the Union and assists the Director of Arrangements in planning summer camps and conferences. She also supervises the building service workers.

She is a member of the First Christian Church and the Republican Women's Club.
